Österreichisches Institut für Wirtschaftsforschung (the Austrian Institute of Economic Research – WIFO) is organised as a not-for-profit association. Its bodies are the Annual General Meeting, Executive Board, auditor and the managing director appointed by the Executive Board. Its membership is open to all natural and legal persons.

This is a membership fee under the law of associations and is therefore not subject to VAT as there is no direct consideration.

Further information on membership, in particular the duration and the amount of the membership fee, can be found in the General Terms and Conditions, in particular in points 5.2, 6 and 9, which are available on the WIFO website (here).
