

Curriculum vitae

Prof. Dr. Markus Leibrecht

Markus Leibrecht studied Economics in Austria and in Brazil. He held positions at universities in Austria, Germany, Singapore and Great Britain / Malaysia. Currently he serves as Professor of Applied Economics at Shanghai Ocean University and as Adjunct Professor at Shanghai University's MBA Centre. In addition to his university-based career, Markus spent several years outside of academia (e.g., Oesterreichische Nationalbank and Austrian Institute of Economic Research) to supplement academic knowledge with practical application and for policy consulting. His current research focuses on the determinants of confidence in market and political institutions as well as on the impact of economic and political institutions on the activities of Multinational Companies.